This document was compiled on Monday 2nd January, 2017.

1. THE HALL GRID

The Hall is arranged on a grid of seven rows by five columns. Rows are numbered 1 through 7 from top to bottom. Row 1 is liturgical East. Row 7 is the West at the close edge of the table. Columns are lettered A through E, from left to right, North to South.

2. TERMINOLOGY

Operation of the Paper Temple is described in some detail in the scripts, however a few common terms are summarised here.

Above / Below: Indicates how a stack of cards is placed relative to another stack of cards while remaining two separate stacks. Because the practitioner faces liturgical East, Above and Below translate to East and West, respectively. Whenever a card or stack is being placed uniquely, that is, not on top of another card or stack, grid coordinates will be specified in the script.

Active position: A sword, staff or wand card placed onto a stack at a 45 degree angle. The tip of the tool will often point up (east) but may point to another card on the table. When a sword, staff or wand card is put down not in the active position, the script will say to put it down squarely.

Hold: Cards depicting either a sword, staff or wand are held by the corner closest to the handle of the item. Hold the Hierophant Wand.

On top / Underneath: Indicates how a card or cards are integrated into an existing stack of cards.

Palm: Cards that are not a sword, staff or wand are held in the palm of the hand, facing outward, fingers cupping the top of the card. Palm the Kerux Lamp.

Set aside: When a card is set aside, it will not be used again in the remainder of the current ritual script.

Set in reserve: When a card or stack is set in reserve, it is placed symbolically outside of the Hall but will be used again later in the ritual script.

Stack: More than one card occupying the same position on the table. Stacks are always in a specific order and will be listed from the top card facing upwards to the card at the bottom with its back touching the table.

Tap: When holding a single card as a tool, a tap is done with the corner of the card closest to the tip of the tool being held. When holding one or more cards as a stack, a tap is done with the bottom edge of the stack.

Touch: A card or stack on the table is touched with the fingers of one hand, usually the dominant hand, but sometimes specified as either left or right.

3. STACKING THE NEOPHYTE DECK

The Neophyte Deck contains twenty-four cards. In preparation for a working, either the full Neophyte Initiation, or when using the Hall Opening and Closing as a wrapper for personal ritual, the cards are faced from top to bottom in the following specific order. ## 12. THE EXPOUNDING OF THE MYSTERIES

The symbolism of the Hall is described in great detail. The Aspirant is declared by name and motto as formally initiated.

12.1. Kerux. Take the Double Cubical Altar Mystic Repast card out from under the Double Cubical Altar Neophyte card and place it on top.

12.2. Hiero. Hold the Hierophant Wand.

12.3. Hiero. I will now expound the mysteries of this Hall.

The “Hall of the Neophytes” is called “The Hall of the Dual Manifestation of Truth,” that is of the Goddess Thmaah, whose name has three forms according to the nature of her operation.

The three-fold cord bound about your waist was an image of the threefold bondage of Mortality, which amongst the Initiated is called earthly or material inclination, that has bound into a narrow place the once far-wandering Soul. The hoodwink was an image of the Darkness, of Ignorance, or Mortality that has blinded people to the Happiness and Beauty their eyes once looked upon.

The Double Cubical Altar in the centre of the Hall is an emblem of the mysteries of all dimensions, while revealing her surface to the exterior senses. It is a double cube because, as the Emerald Tablet has said, “The things that are below are a reflection of the things that are above.” The world of humanity created to unhappiness is a reflection of the World of Divine Beings created to Happiness. It is described in the Sepher Yetzirah, or the Book of Formation, as an “Abyss of Height” and an “Abyss of Depth,” an “Abyss of the East” and an “Abyss of the West,” an “Abyss of the North” and an “Abyss of the South.” The Altar is black because, unlike Divine Beings who unfold in the Element of Light, the Fires of Created Beings arise from Darkness and Obscurity.

On the Altar is a White Triangle to be the Image of that Immortal Light, that Triune Light, which moved in Darkness and formed the World of Darkness and out of Darkness. There are two contending Forces and One always uniting them. And these Three have their image in the three-fold wave of the sensual world.

Stands in the sign of the cross.

GLORY BE TO THEE, SPIRIT OF THE UNIVERSE, FOR THY GLORY FLOWS OUT REJOICING, TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH!

Sits.

The Red Cross above the White Triangle is an image of they who were unfolded in the Light. At its East, South, West and North Angles are a Rose, Fire, Cup of Wine and platter of Bread and Salt. These allude to the four elements of Air, Fire, Water and Earth.

The mystical words – Khabs am Pekht – are ancient Egyptian, and are the origin of the Greek, “Konx Om Pax,” which was uttered at the Eleusinian Mysteries. A literal translation would be “Light rushing out in one ray,” and they signify the same form of Light as that symbolised by the Staff of the Kerux.

East of the Double Cubical Altar of created things, are the Pillars of Hermes and of Solomon. On these are painted certain Hieroglyphs from the 17th and 125th chapters of the Book of the Dead. They are the symbols of the two powers of Day and Night, Love and Hate, Work and Rest, the subtle force of the Lodestone and the eternal outpouring and in-pouring of the Heart of God.

The Lamps that burn, though with a veiled light, upon their summits show that the Pathway to Occult Knowledge, unlike the Pathway of Nature – which is a continual undulation, the winding hither and thither of the Serpent – is the straight and narrow way between them.

It was because of this that I passed between them when you came to the Light, and it was because of this that you were placed between them to receive the Final Consecration. Two contending Forces and one which unites them eternally. Two basal angles of the triangle and one which forms the apex. Such is the Origin of Creation – it is the Triad of Life.

My throne at the Gate of the East is the Place of the Guardian of the Dawning Sun.

The throne of the Hiereus at the Gate of the West is the Place of the Guardian against the Multitudes that sleep through the Light and awaken in the Twilight.

The throne of the Hegemon, seated between the Columns, is the Place of Balanced Power, between the Ultimate Light and the Ultimate Darkness. These meanings are shown in detail and by the colour of our robes.

The Wand of the Kerux is the Beam of Light from the Hidden Wisdom, and their Lamp is the Ever-burning Lamp of the Guardian of the Mysteries.

The Seat of the Stolistes at the Gate of the North is the Place of the Guardian of the Cauldron and the Well of Water – of cold and moisture.

The Seat of the Dadauchos at the Gate of the South is the Place of the Guardian of the Lake of Fire and the Burning Bush.

12.4. Hiero. Tap the Kerux stack.

12.5. Hiero. Honoured Kerux, I ask you to declare that that the Neophyte has been initiated into the mysteries of the  $\textcircled{0} = \boxed{0}$  grade.

12.6. Hiero. Place Hierophant Wand on the Hierophant Lamens in the active position.

12.7. Kerux. Pick up the Kerux stack. Tap the Hiereus, the Neophyte Sash and the Stolistes. Place the Kerux Lamens between the Stolistes and the Sentinel (2A). Hold the Kerux Staff in the right hand. Palm the Kerux Lamp in the left hand.

12.8. Kerux. In the name of the Spirit of the Universe, who works in Silence and naught but Silence can express, and by command of the Very Honoured Hierophant, hear ye all that I proclaim that (\$mundane name), who will henceforth be known to you by the motto (\$motto), has been duly admitted to the  $\textcircled{0} = \boxed{0}$  Grade as a Neophyte of the Witches' Order of the Golden Dawn.

12.9. Kerux. Tap the Neophyte Sash. Place the Kerux Staff and Kerux Lamp squarely on the Kerux stack with the Staff on top. Pick up the Kerux stack and place it face down below the Hierophant (2C). Make the Sign of the Enterer. Pick up the three Kerux cards (Staff, Lamp, Lamens) and tap in place, then tap the Dadauchos, then place the Kerux stack in the lower right (southwest) (7E). Make the Sign of Silence.

12.10. Hiereus. Hold the Hiereus Sword.

12.11. Hiereus. ($motto), it is my duty to deliver this exhortation to you. Remember your Obligation in this order to hold its mysteries sacred. Remember to hold all Religions in reverence, for there is none but contains a Ray from the Ineffable Light that you are seeking. Remember the Mystery that you have received, and that the Secret of Wisdom can be discerned only from the place of Balanced Powers.

Study well the Great Arcanum of the proper equilibrium of Severity and Mercy, for either unbalanced is not good. Unbalanced Severity is cruelty and oppression; unbalanced Mercy is but weakness and would permit Evil to exist unchecked, thus making itself, as it were, the accomplice of that Evil.

Remember that things Divine are not attained by mortals who understand the Body alone, for only those who are lightly armed can attain the summit.

Remember that the Gods alone are our Light and the Bestowers of Perfect Wisdom, and that no mortal power can do more than bring you to the Pathway of that Wisdom. For the whole is greater than the part, so are we but Sparks from the unsupportable Light which is in the Gods.

From the Gods all things proceed, and to the Gods all things return.

Therefore, we invoke Divinity. Therefore even the Banner of the East falls in adoration.

12.12. Hiereus. Tap the Banner of the East. Place the Hiereus Sword squarely onto the Hiereus Lamén.

12.13. Hiero. Touch the Hierophant Wand.

12.14. Hiero. In traditional Golden Dawn Orders, before you can ask to pass to a higher Grade, you would have to commit certain rudiments of Occult Knowledge to memory. We of W.O.G.D. know that not all are served by rote learning. Remember the motto of the Mutus Liber of 1677, “Ora, lege, lege, lege, relege, labora et invenies,” which is, “Pray, read, read, read, read again, work and you shall find.”

12.15. Kerux. Touch the Kerux Staff.

12.16. Kerux. Nature is harmonious in all her workings, and that which is above is as that which is below. Thus also, the Truths which by material Science we investigate, are but special examples of the all-pervading Laws of the Universe.

With this reminder, a traditional Golden Dawn Order would warn of the heavy penalties exacted by the Guardians of Occult Knowledge from those who willfully betray their trust by uttering a careless or unthinking word. Instead we instruct thee, O Neophyte, to remember the distinction between secrecy and privacy. Our ritual scripts are not secret. The performance of those rituals, however, will be served by keeping that work behind a veil of personal privacy.

15. MYSTIC REPAST

15.1. Hiero. Let us take the mystic repast of four elements. For Osiris on-Nophris who is found perfect between the Gods, hath said:

“These are the elements of my Body,
Perfected through Suffering, Glorified through Trial.
For the scent of the Dying Rose is as the repressed Sigh of my suffering:
And the flame-red Fire as the Energy of mine Undaunted Will:
And the Cup of Wine is the pouring out of the Blood of my Heart:
Sacrificed unto Regeneration, unto the Newer Life:
And the Bread and Salt are as the Foundations of my Body,
Which I destroy in order that they may be renewed.
For I am Osiris Triumphant, even Osiris on-Nophris, the Justified:
I am they who are clothed with the Body of Flesh,
Yet in whom is the Spirit of the Great Gods:
I am the Lord of Life, triumphant over Death.
They who partaketh of me shall arise with me:
I am the manifestor in Matter of Those Whose Abode is the Invisible:

 I am purified: I stand upon the Universe:
 I am the Reconciler with the Eternal Gods:
 I am the Perfecter of Matter:
 And without me, the Universe is not.”

Place the Hierophant Wand squarely on the Hierophant Lamens.

Pick up the stacks for the following officers in this order, placing each officer underneath the previous one picked up: Hierophant, Sentinel, Hiereus, Hegemon, Dadauchos, Stolistes, Kerux. This is the ritual deck stack.

17.2. Kerux. Pick up the following cards and put them on top of the ritual deck stack: Banner of the East, Banner of the West, White Pillar, Black Pillar and both Double Cubical Altar cards.

17.3. Aspirant. Collect the Aspirant cards underneath the ritual deck: Blindfold, Rope, Neophyte Sash. This results in a ritual deck which is mostly faced as per the opening.

To repeat the (0) = [0] ritual, most officer lamens and weapons will need to switch places in the ritual deck to be lamens first followed by tool. If one is moving onward to the (1) = [10] Earth Elemental Grade ritual, officer tools are stacked before their respective officer lamens in that ritual deck.
